

Welcome!

May the Lord bless you this day of celebration of God's faithful promises sealed in the blood of Jesus. This morning we witness the sacrament of baptism of Malachi Munroe Damm (son of Peter & Netty). In doing so we are affirmed again in the covenant of grace the Lord has fulfilled for us in Jesus's death and resurrection and welcome Malachi into that covenant community. In this context Malachi will grow up being invited to respond to the promises offered to him in baptism. We also continue our series guided by one of our creeds, the Nicene Creed. Both ancient and current, this historic statement of faith is one of many gifts with which the Lord of all years has blessed the Church. May we worship in gladness for His great faithfulness.
Pastor Colin.
