

Welcome!

This morning we worship the Father through the Son by the Holy Spirit. It is Father's Day today so we give thanks for the presence of our fathers in our lives. We also ask the Spirit's leading as we vote for new elders and deacons. May the Lord Jesus, the head of Bethany, lead and guide us for His glory. Pastor Colin.

Prayers requested

- ❖ Tim M continues to recover at home from back pain. Pray for patience and healing for Tim.
- ❖ From Ed & Ans R: “We would like to say THANK YOU for all your prayers, for spending time with us in prayer and scripture. For all your cards, encouraging words and food. It has been such a blessing to us!!!
Ans was happy to come home last Tuesday around noon. She had excellent care at the hospital and is spending time at home resting and recuperating. She needs lots of rest but short visits are welcome; we ask that you please call Ed first on his cell 905-328-4255. We have an appointment to see the doctor again in a few weeks to discuss the final result and the next steps for further care. We know we are in God's hands and we trust in Him in this journey. We covet your prayers for continue healing. Yours in Christ, Ed & Ans.”
- ❖ Michelle F continues to heal at home from her neck injury. Praise God for His healing care for her.
- ❖ Remember those who are dealing with cancer. Troy A (Grace & Anno Vs son-in-law) continues to be at home recovering in preparation for further treatments. Catherine S (Grace V’s sister-in-law) who continues to struggle with strength enough to undergo treatments. Also Lynn D (sister-in-law to Hans, Frank & Louis), Stacie H (Martha Sikkens’ niece), & Tim R (Mike’s dad) who is waiting on results of his chemo treatments.
- ❖ This past Tuesday the Lord called home to himself Ray V’s mother Wilma V after a battle with cancer. Pray the comfort and peace of the Lord surround the family in this time of mourning and resting in the Lord.
Visitation will take place today, from 2-4pm and 6-8pm at Jubilee Fellowship Christian Reformed Church, 13 Wilholme Dr., St.Catharines. A private interment will take place on Monday, June 20, 2016 followed by a memorial service at Jubilee Fellowship at 11:00am. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to World Renew. John 14:1-4
